SOMETHING NEW IN CHRIST

Isaiah prophesies for the Lord: "Remember not the events of the past, the things of long ago consider not; see, I am doing something new!" One of the most dangerous things that we can do is get stuck in our old ways. As individuals, as parishes, as nations we can say, "We've always done it that way," and miss calls to growth and change. Throughout this Lent and our lives, God continues to call us to life, and we should celebrate that! The psalmist reminds us that "The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy!" Saint Paul realizes this as he explains, "I continue my pursuit toward the goal, the prize of God's upward calling, in Christ Jesus." In the Gospel, Jesus offers a new way of looking at a tricky situation and provides a kinder, less judgmental response.

Jesus knew that the scribes and Pharisees were trying to trap him. They put him in what seemed to be a no-win situation. Let the woman who was caught in adultery go, and he would have been accused of ignoring the law. Let her be stoned, and he would fail to show mercy toward her, contradicting his life's message. Jesus' response teaches three crucial lessons: none of us is free of sin; we are not the ultimate judges of others; Jesus is the mercy of God, in whom we can always trust. In Christ, God does something new. When we give our hearts to Christ, we have the hope of new life, a life in which mercy reigns.

Scribes and Pharisees

In today's Gospel, we meet Scribes and Pharisees who challenge Jesus. Who were these groups? Scribes were wise men who could write and interpret documents.

Their profession included knowledge of the law (the Torah) which enabled them to draft legal documents (contracts, loans, inheritances, mortgages, land registry titles, etc.). Their main task was writing and interpreting the laws of the Bible i.e. their tasks involved administration based on a thorough knowledge of the established laws, the legal language, and its interpretation.

The Pharisees, on the other hand, were intellectuals belonging to an elite upper class. Pharisees thought of themselves as a superior body; they were known as political and religious leaders who had immense power to impose the laws. Like the Scribes, the Pharisees were well-known legal experts but in following legal traditions they went beyond the knowledge of the Bible and included "the traditions of the fathers." In the religious environment, the main difference between Scribes and Pharisees was that the former were people whose task was limited to interpreting the Bible, whereas the latter were an elite class who not only imposed the law but also influenced the law.

ADA 2022

The ADA 2022 theme is "Growing together in Faith." Ascension parishioners have truly come "together" to support our parish and our diocese. We have exceeded our goal (about 4%). Any amount over the goal from now on will be rebated to us and it is earmarked for the church sound system.

If you have been procrastinating in pledging/donating, don't hesitate any longer.

Thank you for your generosity.
